

Form 8938 Guidance for IDB Group Retirees

General Considerations

- This guidance is provided for informational purposes for those IDB Group retirees who are required to attach Form 8938 to their tax return, and is not intended to be and should not be construed as tax or legal advice.
- Some IDB Group retirees do not need to complete Form 8938. Please refer to “Important Notice for U.S. Tax Residents Covered by the Staff Retirement Plan” that you received along with your Form 1099-R as well as the IRS instructions to Form 8938 (available on IRS.gov) to determine whether you are required to complete Form 8938.
- This guidance is addressed primarily to individuals for whom the IDB pension is the only asset that needs to be reported on Form 8938. If you own other assets that need to be reported on Form 8938, some of your entries will need to be different than what is described below, and this guidance does not address how to report those other assets.
- There may be multiple ways to complete Form 8938 to report IDB retirement income. Some tax preparers may complete Form 8938 in a different manner, and such alternative approaches may be equally valid.
- If you are unsure about whether you need to complete Form 8938 or how to complete it, or if you have assets other than IDB Group retirement income that may be reportable on the Form, you should review the Form 8938 instructions (available on IRS.gov) and/or consult with a professional tax advisor who can advise you based on your individual circumstances.
